- With inkjet printers, it is important to ensure the ink is waterproof.
- With laser printers, the toner is fused to the paper at a high temperature, which makes it waterproof. The temperature should be checked as well to ensure the ink is waterproof.

Ecoline Print Paper is particularly suitable for Ecoline, a liquid water colour paint available in bottles or Brush Pens, as the brilliant colours look their very best on this type of paper. What's more, it can be used in the printer, making it highly suited to a hybrid technique; a design can be scanned, printed and then further worked on perfectly with Ecoline and/or an Ecoline Brush Pen.
