Description

The right display can make or break your work, especially if you're keeping track of multiple things at once. Data and financial analysts, creative professionals, and developers all depend on having robust displays that display their efforts accurately every time. T27p-30 ticks all those boxes. Made to deliver near-perfect visual experiences, it is also a highly ergonomic device made with the user in mind. It also goes above and beyond with a wide range of ports for highly practical connectivity. The incredibly thin bezel on its 3-side NearEdgeless design makes adding multiple monitors a breeze. Its incredible Ultra HD resolution (3840 x 2160), paired with In-Plane Switching and wide viewing angle delivers impressive visual clarity.
